As the cosiness of winter transitions into the invigorating energy of summer, spring makes its way into hearts, homes and wardrobes everywhere. Comfortable woollens and plush sweaters are put away, as the vivid brilliance of the new season is welcomed with open arms.

What truly signifies the essence of spring? Sometimes, it's as simple as a beautiful floral pattern, a wave of primary colours, or a soothing pastel shade to embody a sweet subtleness. Other times, it's bold strokes, classic designs with edgy twists, or a stark contrast of hues that bring out the high-spirited energy of the summer sun.

Our five premium properties—DLF Mall of India, DLF City Centre Chandigarh, DLF Promenade, DLF CyberHub and DLF Place Saket—pride themselves in capturing this dynamic ethos of every season, ultimately bringing the most cohesive experiences to you, our patron.

Explore the beauty of minimalism with pretty pastels and stripes worn right. Learn the tricks of the trade (and the right tools) to make your favourite celebrity looks more achievable. We've got three looks showcased by Bollywood stars Aishwarya Rai Bachchan, Deepika Padukone and Sonam Kapoor, to get you started.

Can't decide on an appropriate housewarming present? Our gifting guide, featuring decor items from our best resident brands, will sort you out. If you're simply refurbishing your home, we're here to tell you how to add that touch of exuberance to your personal space.

Join us on a journey of exploration that promises to beguile not just your style sensibilities, but also your hunger for culture, creativity and of course, delicious food.

SUMMERTIME HAPPINESS

A balmy breeze has taken over. Days are finally getting longer. Winter has receded into memory, giving way to a bright and vibrant summer. It’s time to transition your wardrobe into a summer-friendly one. Auréole’s Aditi Mohoni and Kunal Virwani tell you how

Anita Dongre, available at DLF Mall of India and DLF Place Saket

I’M THINKING BRIGHT HUES, BOLD PRINTS AND A PLETHORA OF COLOUR. WHAT ABOUT YOU?

With an unending list of soirées, brunches, beach parties and concerts lined up for the new season, finding an appropriate outfit always feels like a Herculean task. And just in case you have missed fashion week, we’re here to help. Stay a step ahead by incorporating these fun trends into your wardrobe.

LET’S START WITH THE BASICS

Ladies, pastels are making a comeback. You know what to do. If you want to make your look pop, then keep your accessories muted. Experiment away. Mix pastels for a soft yet bold look. But always remember: work with colours that complement each other, if at all times, you want to avoid resembling a popsicle. Me? I am secretly obsessing over Zara’s (available at DLF Mall of India and DLF Promenade) candy-coloured blazers (specially those in mint).

I’m also looking forward to bringing out my inner Olivia Palermo by going all out with sheer. Be it a dress or top, this trend done right can make for a chic and bold ensemble. Sheer kimono tops paired with peek-a-boo statement bralets: Hunkemöller (available at DLF Mall of India and DLF Promenade) tucked into a perfectly pleated skirt is how I enjoy wearing mine. It doesn’t necessarily always have to be bold; keep it minimal or feminine, with shoes and accessories to fit.

Heavy denim is an absolute no, especially during these hot months. Most industrial denim is bleached with harsh chemicals to achieve the desired fade or colour. Obviously, because denim is such a wardrobe staple, it’s hard to live without it. So, try wearing lighter variations like khadi denim—you can literally live in it! Often dyed using azo-free vegetable dyes, this particular denim is cooling, friendly on the skin, and of course, sustainable. Fair warning: sustainable denim can be pricey.

At Massimo Dutti (available at DLF Mall of India), dreamy shades of mustard, coral and muted blue have already made it to my list of favourites. Usually, I enjoy colourblocking with hues from the same family. Instead of drowning my intention in the brightest colours from head to toe, I prefer highlighting a particular tone, and building my outfit around it. For a fun brunch, for instance, I’d wear the Massimo Dutti wide-legged trousers in pop yellow with a Semolina-shade top, making my trousers the focus.

After some research, I put together a list of key pieces I’d like to invest in each season. My philosophy of less is more often kicks in, and I lean on pieces I can style in two or three different ways to really get my money’s worth.

MENSWEAR

For Spring/Summer 2018, menswear has gone back a few decades. It is currently embracing pastels, vertical stripes, light-wash denim and boxy suit jackets. Inspiration stems from the ’90s for print and colour direction, and the ’80s for tailoring and silhouettes.

DOS AND DON’TS WHILE EXPERIMENTING

- While pastels are pleasing to the eye, overdoing them can be tricky. Try sticking with one shade from head to toe.
- Go vertical with stripes for a taller and slimmer look.
- Denim-inspired casual jackets will never go out of style. Dig out your old ones or check out Levi’s (available at DLF Mall of India, DLF Place Saket and DLF Promenade) for their selection of smart casual denim jackets.
- Choose the right length of shorts. A perfect pair ends one or two inches above the knee.
- Dare to wear the short suit. It brings with it a different level of chic. Pro tip: do not match the colour of your suit and your shorts. Mixing things up can give the look a whole other personality.

With a plethora of trends changing every season, it’s obviously not possible to embrace each and every one. I often find myself recycling my purchases from last summer and mixing them with newly coveted ones. Give it a try.

PASTEL PALETTE

What's peach, lilac, mint, mauve, soft, sweet and soothing all around? The season's biggest trend—pastels

Hop on board the light and breezy pastel wagon, and float through summer in style. Keep it monochrome, mix different pastels shades for a statement look, or go bold with accessories that pop. If you like it basic, just pair pastels with anything neutral. And make no mistake: pastels are not limited to the ladies. Men can flaunt these powdery hues too. Just take your cue from our in-store favourites.

"Designers seem to be developing a sweet tooth for ice-cream hues. Pastels in every shade—from powder pink to mint green—should definitely make their way in to your wardrobe. Earn major points by investing in a pastel pant-suit"

STRIPE FOR THE PICKING

Think stripes are tried and tested? 2018 is reinventing this time-trusted style in a big way

Stripes have found their way onto runways and wardrobes of the uber-fashionable everywhere—and it's easy to see why. The versatile trend can be paired with just about anything! Go chic with pastels, or match your stripes with patterns for an edgy look. It's time to show your stripes with a whole new bite.

"Stripes have become almost synonymous with summer. But they are going well beyond the classic navy blue and white nautical versions. It's all about being bold now. The bolder, and more graphic, the stripes, the better"

— Veronna Parikh Damani, stylist

Florals for spring is far from groundbreaking, but they are definitely here to stay. Flare up your flower power because there's a look for every mood out there—sweet to sexy, funky to flirty, casual to couture. SEASONAL FIESTA

Spruce up your summer spread with the season’s coolest ingredients and finest fruits in exotic yet easy-to-prepare dishes

AVOCADO ICE CREAM

INGREDIENTS

500ml full-cream milk, 200ml fresh cream, 2 vanilla pods, 4 ripe Hass avocados, 100gm sugar, 100gm honey, 1 lemon

METHOD

Cut the vanilla pods in half, scrape out the seeds and add them to a saucepan along with the pods. Add sugar, and the zest and juice from your lemon. Bring these ingredients to a boil, and then simmer for a couple of minutes until all the sugar dissolves. Take the mixture off the heat, leave the syrup to cool in a bowl.

Boil the milk and cream together till they are reduced to half.

Peel, de-stone and scoop the avocado flesh into a liquidiser with the syrup, milk and honey. Blitz to a light, smoothie-type consistency.

If you’ve got an ice-cream maker, put the mixture into it and churn it till it is smooth and frozen. If you don’t, pour it into a large baking dish or deep tray, and pop it in the freezer, giving it a whisk every half-an-hour or so, until it is frozen and smooth.

Scoop out, plate, and serve.
